

INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM

“The Long-Term Care Crisis: Tapping Into Labour Resources Within and Across National Borders”

March 11 - 12, 2019 · Erbacher Hof · Mainz/Germany

Monday, 11 March 2019

12.30 - 13.00 Registration

13.00 - 13.15 Opening

13.15 - 14.00 Opening Lecture

Bernhard Weicht (University of Innsbruck, Austria)
Care Trajectories: Intersecting Movements Beyond Borders and Professions

14.15 - 15.45 Panel 1: Policies and Strategies

Reiko Ogawa (Chiba University, Japan)
When the Local Meets the Global: Changing Face of Elderly Care in Japan

Peter Abrahamson (University of Copenhagen, Denmark)
Solving the Care Crisis by Engaging Migrant Domestic Care Workers? The Cases of Middle Classes in Latin America

Chiara Giordano (Free University of Brussels, Belgium)
The ‘Care Mix’ Adopted by Belgian families and the Growing Presence of Migrant Workers in Elderly Care in Belgium

16.00 - 17.30 Panel 2: Actors and Intermediaries

Maciej Duszczyc (University of Warsaw, Poland) & Simone
Leiber (University of Duisburg-Essen, Germany)
*Intermediaries in a Heterogeneous “Grey” Market:
A Typification of Brokering and Employment Agencies for Live-in Care Work in Poland and Germany*

Francesca Degiuli (Fairleigh Dickinson University, USA)
The Role of Geriatric Doctors in Shaping Long-Term Care and its Providers

Claudia Zilli (University of Milan, Italy)
The Triangle of Care, the Role of Foreign Care Workers and the Issue of the Promotion of Socially Innovative and Sustainable LTC Solutions in Italy

Organization: Anita Böcker, María Bruquetas (Radboud University Nijmegen), Vincent Horn & Cornelia Schweppe (University of Mainz)

Registration: Participants can register until February 22, 2019 by sending an e-mail to hornv@uni-mainz.de, including their name and place of work. No conference fee is charged.

Symposium venue: Erbacher Hof, Grebenstraße 24, 55116 Mainz, Germany

Tuesday, 12 March 2019

10.30 - 12.00 Panel 3: Practices and Relationships

Marianne van Bochove (Erasmus University Rotterdam, The Netherlands)
*Broadening the scope of research on live-in migrant care:
How care networks shape experiences of precarious work*

Anita Böcker, María Bruquetas (Radboud University, The Netherlands), Vincent Horn & Cornelia Schweppe (University of Mainz, Germany)
‘The Chemistry has to be Right’: Creating and Negotiating Relationships in Live-in Migrant Carer Arrangements

Antía Pérez-Caramés (University of A Coruna, Spain)
Transnational Arrangements for Care Provision in Romanian Migrant Families: Influences on Decisions for Return

12.00 - 13.00 Lunch

13.00 - 14.30 Panel 4: Rights and Implications

August Österle (Vienna University of Economics and Business, Austria)
The Role of Transnational Social Protection for Migrant Care Work Arrangements: Experiences, Practices of and Hurdles for Self-Employed 24-hour Carers

Li-Fang Liang (National Yang-Ming University, Taiwan)
The Everyday Vulnerability: Health and Well-being of Live-in Migrant Care Workers in Taiwan

Claudia Menebröcker (Caritas Paderborn, Germany)
CariFair – Caritas Commitment to Fair and Legal Employment of Migrant Care Workers

14.30 - 15.15 Closing Lecture

Liat Ayalon (Bar-Ilan University, Israel)
Challenges and New directions in the Conduct of Transnational Elder Care Research